

Commitment Contract

Dear Student and Parent,

Thank you for applying to the Plymouth School of Inquiry. We are so excited you want to be a part of our New Tech family for the 2012-2013 school year. Please remember your application is not complete until this Commitment Contract has been returned to the school corporation offices.

By signing this commitment letter, you are indicating your intention to attend Plymouth School of Inquiry for the 2012 - 2013 school year. Students who have secured their place in the Class of 2016 during the early enrollment period will be notified by mail that they have been accepted to attend the school by January 21st. Students who apply during the early enrollment period, but who are not amongst the first 50 applicants DO NOT need to apply again during the regular enrollment period. Students applying during the regular enrollment period (January 19-January 30) will be notified of their acceptance by February 7.

Students and Parents Applying to the School of Inquiry Understand...

- Learning at the Plymouth School of Inquiry occurs through the use of Project Based Learning and through Collaborative Grouping.
- Students will be graded through the use of rubrics.
- Students will be assessed not only on content knowledge, but on learning outcomes such as collaboration, communication, critical thinking, technology literacy, work ethic, and professionalism.
- Students will be expected to provide formal presentations about learning with the use of technology.
- The Plymouth School of Inquiry will have a unique culture of trust, respect, responsibility and high personal expectations
- There are requirements for community service, a portfolio project, and internships during the four years at the Plymouth School of Inquiry.
- Students are expected to remain at the Plymouth School of Inquiry during all four years of high school.

Our signatures below indicate that we have read and understand the guidelines as indicated above, and agree to attend the Plymouth School of Inquiry if selected.

This form must be received by January 17, 2012 at the Plymouth Community School Corporation Offices if the student is enrolling during the early enrollment period. Students enrolling during the regular enrollment period (January 19-January 30) must have this signed form at the Plymouth Community School Corporation Offices by February 7, 2012.
